

Example of Middleware Consultant Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of middleware consultant. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for middleware consultant

- Responding to Customer Requests for Proposals
- Subject Matter Expert for Middleware infrastructure/ESB build/implementation and delivery for projects
- Administration (Installation, configuration, tuning and support) of middleware software and DataPower appliances
- Participate in the upgrade/patching planning and execution of the middleware software and DataPower appliances
- Provide subject matter expertise for standards/best practices, security related threats and vulnerabilities as it pertains to the middleware infrastructure
- React to any given technical situation that requires immediate attention to ensure maximum system availability for supported Middleware instances
- Is often the Master Middleware Consultant who analyzes and develops Middleware solutions
- Ensure operational excellence by monitoring and ensuring team goals and key contractual commitments are met
- Advise management and peers on matters of importance to area(s) of Middleware responsibility
- Maintain customer relationships with other functional managers and Account Leads with an objective of maintaining and building the business

Qualifications for middleware consultant

- Willingness to travel weekly to customer locations throughout Australia and New Zealand
- An understanding of architecture, knowledge of IaaS and PaaS
- Excellent communication skills, articulate IaaS/PaaS solution values to different audiences very clearly
- Native in Arabic and fluent in English
- Sound knowledge of industry best practice regarding Service Management