Our company is hiring for a middleware engineer. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for middleware engineer

- You have worked with either OpenGL or DirectX and know about rendering and writing shaders
- This isn't your first job, you know your way around software engineering/application development and are confident in your own ability
- Building automation solutions
- Service development and implementation including service upgrades
- Communication and cooperation of work from different teams, also vendors and customer
- Participate in Agile software development projects and tasks include coding, testing, and debugging
- Middleware product lifecycle management
- Implement Proof of Concepts and assist in selecting middleware products
- Assist in the growth and strategic planning of the middleware products and technology solutions
- Develop and manage tools to support product automation

Qualifications for middleware engineer

- Understanding of the JVM and how it operates, Garbage Collection, Tuning
- Work with developers/engineers across disciplines to implement customer and system requirements
- Perform integration between the various COTS products and in-house

- A minimum of a Bachelor's degree coupled with 8+ years of related experience
- Minimum 3 years' experience depending on expertise to middleware development areas - no bar on maximum
- Hibernate and Spring framework