

Example of National Security Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of national security. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for national security

- Coordination of NSI subprograms and acting as liaison for subprogram directors and their events and activities
- Proven ability to provide written and verbal briefings to high standard
- Crisis Management and Response supporting Senior Corporate Security management
- Expected participation and significant contribution to Quarterly Business Reviews
- Assists the Exec Director with critical threat identification, intelligence gathering and analysis at a global level, monitoring incidents and accessing information to determine what impact those incidents may have on the company, employees, customers and facilities
- Partners with the Executive Director, legal and Risk Management teams to develop strategy, policies and procedures and, set direction that secures the safety and protection of the employees and guest at all times
- Security Shift Manager (indirect)
- Assistant Security Managers (indirect)
- Security Officers (indirect)
- Ensures compliance of company policies, practices, business standards, and governmental regulations of highly complex issues

Qualifications for national security

- Experience working with IED-D TADSS, and a practical working knowledge of IED-D and Counter IED organization and doctrine is preferred
- Prior military, E6 or higher with at least 4 years work experience in teaching robotics operations
- Talon/Pacbot repair experience
- Military PMS/PMCS work center supervisor