Our company is hiring for a .NET developer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for .NET developer

- Create clean, maintainable code and supporting technical documentation
- Translate the business tasks into programming terms, define the needed tools and technologies, and perform the task
- Develop, monitor and maintain components within the n-tier Information Services structure
- Conducting code reviews
- Making sure deadlines are being met
- Motivating, guiding and mentoring junior developers
- Working on more complex projects and tasks
- Requirements Analysis, Application Design & Implementation
- Daily interaction with business engagement teams to facilitate successful project implementation
- Delivery of application development using best practices

Qualifications for .NET developer

- The ideal candidate of our client should have great passion in computer programming, have aptitude for learning, innovation and research on technical skills
- At least three years' experiences in developing commercial software and websites using Microsoft .Net framework and tools, including ASP.Net 3.5 using C#, ADO.Net
- Solid knowledge of relational databases, and familiar with Microsoft SQL Server

- 3 years' .Net development experiences, and 3 years' WPF development experiences
- Microsoft .NET Framework 2.0 – 4.0 using C#