Our company is looking for a .NET developer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for .NET developer

- Design and develop custom applications to support Security Operations
- Document development efforts
- Travel as required by business - Up to 80%
- Develop multitier web applications for customers and internal users using Visual Studio
- Enhance and support e-commerce sites, mobile sites and intranet for the U.S. , Canada and Mexico
- Communicate with business analysts to gather accurate specifications for new enhancements and applications

Qualifications for .NET developer

- Experience using Visual Studio and TFS
- Experience with current Windows operating systems and current browser technologies
- Working knowledge of SQL Server and stored procedures
- College diploma or university degree in the field of computer science or software engineering, and/or 5 years equivalent work experience as a software developer or engineer
- 5 or more years working experience with .NET development
- 5 or more years experience working within Windows environment