Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of network design. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for network design

- Configuring and troubleshooting routers in a large WAN environment
- Administering and configuring layer 2 and layer 3 networks
- Ability to comprehend and create complex network maps and drawings in standard design tools
- Functional understanding of DNS, DHCP and related network services
- Experience supporting Wireless LAN Services, preferably Cisco
- Operational understanding of different media and cable types
- Provide proactive recognition and correction of network related problems
- Provide telephone based support for Tier 3 network problems from internal users
- Provide support to customers and staff during new site installation and moves
- Provide the coordination of repair and restoral efforts of various service providers, including monitoring services, telecommunication providers and ISPs

Qualifications for network design

- Experience with Cisco Nexus technologies
- Good experience with Cisco wireless
- Understanding of Load Balancers in a network environment
- Additionally, the candidate must work well within a team, adapt easily to change, and possess the flexibility to travel

- Relevant experience would include experience in IT networking, telephony, work with various VOIP phone systems including Cisco and Avaya, and other similar work