Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a network implementation. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for network implementation

- Network services, such as load balancers, RADIUS, TACACS, DNS, DHCP and network monitoring tools
- Lead a team of high performing Network Planners and Inter-System Specialists
- Ensure the availability of our service including operational support problem management
- Provides direction and guidance necessary to assure the efficient and cost-effective operation within approved operating and capital budgets
- Prepares all capital project and expense proposals
- Develops and implements standards and practices
- Of other team members
- The Senior Network
- Opportunities that drive business value and implementing waste reduction
- Implement systems solutions sold to Customers to include systems repairs, expansions & upgrades

Qualifications for network implementation

- Flexibility regarding working hours from 16 February to 22 August 2014
- Database knowledge, 3-tier architectures, modern development languages
- Experience with fiber media and optical technologies, ie
- Experience with Project Management methodology and tools such as Enterprise project and change standards, SDLC, Waterfall, Clarity, Discovery,

- Experience with financial matters budget preparation and cost management