Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of network integration. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for network integration

- Controls and is the 2nd escalation contact in GDC NI team
- Individual Contributor for IT design, implementation, operation, and support team
- Provide cross-functional project planning for IT Group
- Monitor schedules, scope and resources pertaining to each project
- Manage project risks by identifying issues and taking the lead in removing impediments
- Deliver support to multiple stakeholder groups including Product Engineering, Customer Service, Business Development/Sales, and internal user population
- Drive evolution of IT infrastructure, plan for future needs and maintain secure IT environments
- Must be able to communicate clearly and concisely with all levels of employees throughout the company, both oral and written

Qualifications for network integration

- 3+ years of experience with software development and testing
- 3+ years of experience with C# programming, including in the .NET framework
- Experience with practical software architecture, including extensible software framework design and modular design principles
- BS degree in Software Engineering or Computer Science