

Example of Network Planning Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of network planning. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for network planning

- Developing OR models and state-of-the-art planning solutions leveraging own OR scientists, Corporate OR functions and external parties and academics
 - Managing the design, construction, maintenance, and continuous improvement of local market information and Branch / ATM network planning tools
 - Developing and maintaining local market intelligence as it relates to the Canadian retail and financial services industry
 - Detailed tracking and performance reporting for all Branch and ATM network reconfigurations
 - Strategic network planning and market analysis for new PoP and/or Data Center deployments
 - Develop and maintain relationships with network carrier/provider teams
 - Work with carrier/provider sales and engineering teams to design, augment and manage network connectivity solutions
 - Develop Requests for Quote (RFQ) that will be used as part of carrier/provider selection for network service augments
 - Identify and recommend to Engineering Management "best solution" with the use of empirical data points that clearly illustrate commercial and technical advantages provided by one carrier/provider
 - Negotiate business and technical contract terms for network services (new contracts and renewals)
-

- Degree in Bachelor of Electrical & Electronics Engineering
- Minimum 3 years of related working experience in Network Architecture, preferably working in Optical Network or Transmission Technology
- Partner & Customer Relationship Management
- Architecture & Solution Building
- Drive strategy and roadmap for next generation EU Network Planning process
- Document and present multiple capacity/topology scenarios with recommendations