

Example of Nurse Anesthetist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of nurse anesthetist. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for nurse anesthetist

- Manage patients' airway or pulmonary status using techniques such as endotracheal intubation, mechanical ventilation, pharmacological support, respiratory therapy and extubating
- Monitor patients' responses including skin color, pupil dilatation, pulse, heart rate, blood pressure, respiration, ventilation, or urine output, using invasive and noninvasive techniques
- Demonstrates proficiency in use of department and hospital computer applications such as E Learning, Outlook email, and the Saturday OR sign-up process
- HSS encourages and supports professional growth and development, recognizes individual contributions, and offers unique and highly competitive compensation packages
- Collaborates with MDA Site leaders to develop and periodically evaluate quality measures that relate to site practice that ensures and promotes patient safety
- Communicates with Division Director and Administrative Chief CRNA regarding CRNA affairs, work environment, disciplinary action and patient satisfaction accolades or concerns
- Assists Administrative Chief in Site related orientation and training of new hires
- Actively participates in walking rounds daily through assigned location to provide visibility to staff, inspect work environment, report and correct any

- Encourages participation in morning and shift change huddles with staff for daily operational information and handoff pertinent to work flow
- Prepares work schedules for CRNAs, approves VSL requests, submits hourly time sheets for CRNA Staff, and communicates with Administrative Chief CRNA regarding daily operations

Qualifications for nurse anesthetist

- Demonstrated leadership ability and strong computer skills preferred
- Graduate of an accredited Nurse Anesthesia Education Program with a Master's degree in a related field or graduation from a program accredited by the Council on Accreditation of Nurse Anesthesia Education programs prior to January 1998
- Must have sufficient sensory capacity to observe the patient and patient monitors
- Must be able to communicate effectively in both academic and health care settings
- Must show evidence of effective written and verbal communication skills
- Must have demonstrated ability to exercise good judgment and effectively