

Example of Nurse Educator Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of nurse educator. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for nurse educator

- Ensure high level of customer insights to meet customer needs and expectations in line with regional account strategy specifically and overall strategy
- Ensure to be updated on latest scientific information concerning Sanofi Genzyme's products, competitors and disease areas to provide high standards of customer service (on demand)
- Provide input in patient and healthcare professionals focused projects
- Collaborate with COMPASS, patients, healthcare providers, and other involved parties to drive efficient processes related to coverage reviews, financial support, shipment coordination, and other barriers that may delay treatment
- Responsibilities include but are not limited to clinical assessments, venipuncture, IV starts, medication administration, EKG, and centrifuging of specimens
- Planning, preparing and maintaining materials for use in educational programs for accuracy and relevance to the target audience
- Communicating effectively with staff and management regarding educational needs and offerings
- Assessing, planning and implementing programs for staff development to upgrade and maintain competency skills
- Developing and sustaining relationships and presence within local colleges and universities offering nursing degrees to identify and recruit nurses into the Program

Qualifications for nurse educator

- Two years perioperative and/or operating room nursing
- Graduate from a National League of Nursing (NLN) accredited school of nursing
- Requires experience with teaching and modeling self management skills, concepts, resources and tools related to health, lifestyle change and behavior modification to class participants
- Possess a positive attitude with changing conditions
- Possesses strong communication and professionalism when consulting with appropriate health care professionals, support staff and interacting with patients/families
- Bilingual English/Spanish communication skills a plus