Our company is looking for a nurse practioner. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for nurse practioner

- Primary focus of practice is the clinical management of health care to the veterans assigned to Surgery service
- Facilitates care of urologic or orthopedic patient's their entry and exit from various health care systems by establishing and maintaining liaison with a variety of medical specialists and associated staff
- Assist with clinical aspects of care to the patients of urology services
- Initiates and accepts referrals to clinics and/or community agencies
- Potential to assist in the Procedure Room at the direction of the Chief of Surgery
- Perform procedures within their realm of expertise and under the direction of the Chief of Surgery and in accordance with the individuals Scope of Practice
- Assist other Mid- Level providers assigned to the Urology or Orthopedic service as needed
- Other clinical duties as assigned by the Chief of Surgery
- Coordinate referrals, scheduling and evaluation of veterans at the Marion VA Medical Center, outside VA's and private sector referrals of veterans to urology or orthopedics in Surgery Service
- Attend committee meetings and process action teams to represent the Surgery service at the direction of the Chief of Surgery service

Qualifications for nurse practioner

- Eligibility for DEA/DPS licensure
- Certified in Basic Life Support and/or Acute Care Life Support, All acute care/inpatient APRNS must hold a minimum ACLS certification
- Must have or be able to obtain Nurse Practitioner or Physician Assistant license to practice in Colorado
- Be able to speak Spanish is desirable
- Combination of previous clinical experience in type 1 diabetes and with special interest and experience in diabetes care in children