

Example of Nursing Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a nursing. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for nursing

- Direct supervision of nursing staff and auxiliary personnel
- Overseeing all nursing related activities
- Generating and publishing all nursing personnel scheduling & job assignment for the Health Center
- Working cooperatively with the Medical Director to coordinate all health care team member's schedule and locations for any given work day (including MD's, DO's, NP's, and PA's)
- Authority is granted to the Nursing Coordinator to ensure that necessary provider and nurse coverage is achieved for the Health Center on any given work day
- Reviewing nurse patient care plans, all other related documentation, and communications
- Perform other duties as assigned which may change from time to time
- On an ongoing basis, evaluate nurse employee's work performance in accordance with established goals, job standards, and job descriptions
- Provide direct correction, counsel, and encouragement appropriate to each staff member regarding performance deficiencies to improve specific and/or overall job performance
- Conduct annual reviews for nursing staff in a respectful, effective, and timely manner

Qualifications for nursing

- HCAHPS/EPIC knowledge preferred critical thinking skills, and educating patients and their family members regarding their plan of care and clinical pathway

- A qualified faculty member in Nursing is one who has an earned master's degree in Nursing from a regionally accredited institution, (BSN will be considered as long as working toward or willing to work toward an MSN)
- Is a Registered Nurse licensed in Indiana
- Has two years of directly related work experience
- Must have strong working knowledge of current technologies appropriate to are of instruction