

Example of Occupational Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of occupational. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for occupational

- Communicates effectively with patient, family members, and team members as needed
- Represents and promotes OT as a profession with hospital and community environments
- Conduct Occupational Therapy screenings according to established state and federal professional standards and procedures
- Complete and write comprehensive diagnostic evaluations according to established state and federal professional standards and procedures
- Participate in multidisciplinary team conferences and planning sessions in order to meet the continuing needs of identified students or those at risk
- Develop Individualized Education Programs for identified students
- Collaborate with Intervention Assistance Team (IAT) members regarding age appropriate intervention strategies
- Provide Occupational Therapy services using a variety of service delivery models within a collaborative team to address fine motor needs of the student
- Complete documentation through progress notes and quarterly reports that specify student progress on IEP goals and objectives
- Work collaboratively with teachers and parents including parent/teacher conferences to ensure a unified approach to school-related issues

Qualifications for occupational

- Licensed Rehab Therapist specializing in Occupational Therapy (OTR) credentialed from the Texas Executive Council of Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy Examiners obtained within 3 Months (90 days) of hire date or job transfer date
- Employee must be licensed in the state of Utah as an Occupational Therapist
- Proficiency in all OT skills
- Bachelor's Degree Occupational Therapy
- Adult rehabilitation professional experience as an OT, but will consider new graduates with relevant intern experience