

Example of Onboarding Analyst Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking for an onboarding analyst. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for onboarding analyst

- Handle queries from internal and external partners and clients
- Perform routine reporting and analysis contributing to recommendations for the business unit based on their needs for minor process improvement, along with assisting in small to medium projects within business unit
- Perform routine reporting and analysis within existing reporting models, but also make minor adjustments to reporting models
- Develop solutions for routine and less complex problems for the business unit
- Makes recommendations that best meet clients business objectives
- Efficiently managing the requests in their pipeline while providing relevant status updates to end users
- Previous exposure in working with & communicating to senior stakeholders
- An in depth understanding of the system development lifecycle
- Experienced as a business analyst, working on reference data-related projects in the Financial Services industry
- An excellent communicator, who is fluent in English (written/verbal)

Qualifications for onboarding analyst

- No licenses required, Series 7 & 63 a plus
- Strong research, writing and communication skills with the ability to communicate information and ideas in spoken or written form so that others will understand
- Master's degree or higher of equivalent work experience

- Two to three years of account onboarding or related exposure – investment operations, derivatives, country registration, custody
- Exposure to derivative contract negotiations