

Example of Operations Business Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of operations business manager. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for operations business manager

- Join an industry-leading organization in supply chain management and get engaged in various projects and processes
- Develop strategic outputs in response to complex issues, based on broader Go-To-Market goals and objectives Business Unit goals and objectives
- Ensure the business complies with company policies
- Accountable for supply and demand activities for multiple, complex product lines, ensuring that performance (inventory, cost,) meets the overall business needs
- Manage the organization's operational cadence in the maintenance of business scorecards
- Engage on business issues to assist in issues assessment, resolution and root cause analysis
- Keep a pulse on the business results and levers to proactively assess and frame results
- Assist in ad hoc business analysis in support of Americas GCS strategic initiatives
- Participates in development of long-range strategic plan for EOSS and the Dean of Students Office and coordinates communication of objectives to achieve goals
- Provides technical and professional direction to the Dean of Students as required

- Work with agents to find and negotiate spaces for TM pop-up events, product testing & focus groups
- A minimum of 5-7 years of accumulated outsourcing management experience - must have both contract management and service delivery related experience
- Bachelor's degree and 7-10 years of progressively responsible project or program management experience required
- Strong analytical backgrounds
- Ability to lead through influence in a cross-functional environment
- Ability to lead projects (define process, coordinate, define strategy, tracking results)