Our growing company is looking to fill the role of operations VP. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for operations VP

- The VP - Provider of Operations will review cost, utilization, work lifebalance and value data regularly with physician and administrative leaders and MBO executives, and will be responsible for both the dissemination of this information and for the implementation of interventions needed to improve value (the quadruple aim)
- Has responsibility for resource stewardship as it relates to care delivery
- Is responsible for the identification and realization of clinical operations opportunities through reduction of variation in cost, quality, and resource utilization
- Shares regional and site specific operational efficiency and effectiveness trend data
- Implements care pathways and standards for CHI clinical "next practice" programs, via dyad and service line administrative Leaders and their respective administrative dyads
- Develop & Enhance Clinical and operational Staff Performance and Alignment
- TheVP - Provider of Operations will develop, align, and mobilize regional Dyad administrative and practice leaders around successfully achieving clinical, operational, and strategic priorities for the organization
- Manages MBO, Dyad and service line Administrative Leader performance by establishing clear job descriptions and goals, and through staff development and training
- Identifies and develops high-potential clinical staff and nursing

Qualifications for operations VP

- Basic understanding of networking, including but not limited to DNS, WINS, firewalls, DMZ, public and private networks and VPNs
- Strong understanding of service level protocols and related architectures, processes and tools for service level monitoring and reporting, health checks and SLA compliance
- Familiarity with engineering practices appropriate for application hosting platforms, including security practices testing and QA, rapid deployment cycles, scaling and caching techniques, Experience with complex applications leveraging a large number of heterogeneous software components
- Must be able to travel up to 30% of the time with 50% being domestic air travel and/or 50% being driving between customer sites
- Self-motivated and proactive team player who takes ownership and accountability of initiatives, has strong organizational skills the ability to effectively manage competing priorities
- Minimum 10-12 years experience in the Financial Services industry with a demonstrated track-record of delivery and/or relevant experience in Compliance, KYC and Screening