

Example of Operator, Manufacturing Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for an operator, manufacturing. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for operator, manufacturing

- Attach slitting blades to machine when necessary
- Inspect and remove all defects, properly resplice the roll, stamp each role
- Lift finished material onto the machine (up to 50lbs regularly)
- Complete quality assurance sheet and associated documentation
- Responsible for cleanliness of machinery and organization of the workspace
- Maintaining visual standards that are set by your local management of your production area
- Adhering to the quality standards and/or processes for your production area
- Assist in any quality and housekeeping improvements or processes that may take place within your production area
- Identify opportunities for continuous improvement to work area and processes
- Winding wire

Qualifications for operator, manufacturing

- 2 or more years of previous manufacturing (product assembly) experience
- Required to pass the respirator FIT testing
- Able to acquire Employee Possessor (EP) status under the Safe Explosives Act (SEA)
- Able to pass and maintain Manufacturing-To-Inspect (MTI) certifications
- Able to work a physically demanding day (stand for long periods)
- Prefer experience with safe handling of hazardous materials, operating industrial equipment such as cranes, forklifts and hand tools