

Example of Operator, Manufacturing Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of operator, manufacturing. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for operator, manufacturing

- Respond to SPC process control alarms, bringing processes back into control
- Support the operation of pilot-line equipment to define a new process
- Transition new equipment and processes through start-up, qualification, and implementation
- Interface with internal associates as required, to complete assigned projects
- Develop a complete understanding of area processes, equipment, and support systems
- Ensure waste materials are discarded in their designated containers
- Ensure satellite accumulation containers stay in their designated locations
- People and Teamwork
- Flexible team player with the ability to adapt and fill production needs
- Accountability and Dedicated to Excellence

Qualifications for operator, manufacturing

- Ability to read a tape measure and blueprints
- Ability to read and comprehend instructions and short correspondence
- Ability to perform all required quality checks and surface inspection of material
- Frequently is required to stand and sit
- Occasionally required to walk and stoop, kneel, or crouch
- Specific vision abilities required by this job include ability to see small detail, depth perception, and the ability to adjust focus