Our company is looking to fill the role of oracle database. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for oracle database

- Manage the day to day operations of the RDBMS environment and High availability systems
- Evaluate Oracle features and Oracle related products by using Oracle 9i, 10g, 11g and 12c
- Use RAC to deliver high performance, increased throughput, and high availability
- Maintain single, two and four node Clusters on non-Exadata and Exadata machine
- Apply policy to protect application data, Access control
- Authentication method, preventing unauthorized ad-hoc access by using Database Vault
- Build audit vault to gather information from remote databases, monitor for audit data
- Monitor the web logic service and escalate to owner of the system
- Monitor routing policies, maintaining OID server, starting/stopping services
- Participate in the design and implementation of new Oracle Database platforms

Qualifications for oracle database

- Providing direction and guidance to a team of developers, including allocation and management of workload
- Experience with Oracle 11g/12c Database Administration and Management on AIX platforms

- Experienced usage of dictionary views
- Working knowledge on Dataguard