

Example of Packaging Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a packaging manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for packaging manager

- Fully own technical milestones in project timelines
- Troubleshoot technical issues (supplier, plant, distribution, quality)
- Manage the resolution of issues between all parties
- Understand PubMatic's technology and media solutions from an intellectual and applied perspective
- People management to drive careers and engagement throughout the team interaction with other functions
- Work with offshore trim teams to maintain and refine trim supplier matrix, to include appropriate suppliers that will deliver quality products at best value without compromising brands' vision of innovation and newness, and that will support our initiative of vertical integration
- Build strong relationships with cross-functional partners to develop long-term strategies to achieve the goals of the business as it relates to leveraging of material for cost benefits
- Partner with global Trim Managers to understand global labeling requirements and ensure compliance with legal and customs compliance team
- Attend line reviews with designers to understand trim requirements and lifestyle of the consumer
- Partner with Sourcing and The Marketing Group to drive the trim development calendar on a seasonal basis to support the needs of Design

Qualifications for packaging manager

- Evaluate new design concepts to identify new materials and processes to address market needs
- Experience managing application development projects
- Experience creating metrics for management reports
- Experience in automotive industry (preferably Ford)
- Wide scope of working knowledge in various packaging areas, including but not limited to