Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of palliative care. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for palliative care

- Perform administrative detail work on special projects or programs requiring specialized knowledge of the programs
- Assist the Leadership team with projects as needed by researching, analyzing, and compiling information
- Serve as a liaison between inpatient, skilled nursing, and home setting
- First line patient and family assessment for palliative care consults
- Perform or facilitate f/u visits for palliative care patients as appropriate to facilitate coordination and continuity of care
- Evaluates the physical and psychological state of the Palliative patient
- Provide services related to palliative care and end of life care
- Collaborates and consults with a multidisciplinary team to ensure safe, effective, and timely treatment continuity of care
- Facilitate continuity of communication and coordination of care with community providers
- Arrange palliative care consultation meeting with attending and other palliative care staff in collaboration with treating medical team

Qualifications for palliative care

- Bachelor’s degree in an educational or medical field plus a minimum of five years of related professional experience
- Excellent customer service skills with emphasis on patience, helpfulness, and tact
• Knowledgeable about ministry to persons of diverse religious and cultural backgrounds
• Ability to work well as a member of an interdisciplinary healthcare team
• Ability to relate theology, behavior science, and understanding of persons to help minister to patients/families in their struggles