

Example of Pediatric Physical Therapist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking for a pediatric physical therapist. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for pediatric physical therapist

- Performs patient assessment/reassessment
- Assesses educational needs of the patient, family, caregiver or significant other and provides education to meet those needs
- Provides interventions based upon accepted standards of practice
- Focuses on skilled interventions including referral to other disciplines as appropriate
- Patients are adequately prepared for and discharged in a timely fashion
- Providing consultation on issues involving effective motor development to teaching staff and other appropriate programs
- Maintaining and making all records and reports available required
- Establishes, revises and evaluates a plan of care that is appropriate to problems identified and involves the patient/family
- Exhibits clinical accuracy in performing patient evaluations (re-evaluations) and interprets results within scope of licensure
- Accurately performs appropriate chart review and data collection

Qualifications for pediatric physical therapist

- Carrying, Hearing/Listening, Lifting, Manual Dexterity, Pulling/Pushing, Seeing, Speaking, Squatting/Kneeling, Standing, and Walking
- Previous pediatric experience highly preferred
- Clinical background experience in a healthcare setting
- Previous inpatient and outpatient experience in a pediatric setting

- California Physical Therapy license is required