

Example of Pharmaceutical Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a pharmaceutical. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for pharmaceutical

- Conducts on-site inspections/surveys and investigations at healthcare facilities and agencies statewide to determine compliance with state licensure requirements and federal Medicare and Medicaid conditions of participation
- Surveys, inspects and evaluates pharmaceutical and drug related practices in healthcare facilities throughout the state to determine compliance with state and federal rules and regulations for licensure, certification and registration
- Build and maintain strategic relationships with internal and external vendors and through external knowledge of business, markets, and IT trends, bring innovative value add solutions forward for consideration
- Responsible for ensuring the compliance and audit standards are understood and adhered to where applicable
- Opportunities occur
- Team co-ordination to maximize the effectiveness of all of the team members
- Maintaining the overall cGMP of the pharmaceutical processing areas
- Performs the cleaning and housekeeping of equipment, utensils, tools and areas, major and minor cleaning, according to establish procedures and documenting in the corresponding sheets
- Alerts and informs the supervisor and group leader about any incident that could represent a risk or hazard for anyone or for the manufacturing process
- Keeps the areas cleaned and organized, including using the correct identification according to areas cleaning status

Qualifications for pharmaceutical

- Demonstrate strong leadership skills, , take ownership of the process, always work safely donning the proper PPE, mentor/train new operators, etc
- Demonstrate strong technical skills at and above those expected of a Secondary Qualified Technician, consistently troubleshooting and displaying exceptional problem solving skills
- Actively participate in the training of new employees
- Ensure accurate and adequate documentation through label verifications, batch record reviews, (Documentation responsibilities are much more significant than those required of Secondary Technicians)
- Must demonstrate broad technical understanding across the entire facility, with ability to work between labs and expertise in at least two separate technologies
- Must have demonstrated outstanding troubleshooting skills and ability to anticipate critical customer issues