

Example of Pharmacy Clinical Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of pharmacy clinical. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for pharmacy clinical

- Evaluates clinical skills of pharmacists and provides performance review input for staff development
- An active member of the Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee
- Participate in the selection and hiring of pharmacists
- Precepts and coordinates the precepting of pharmacy students
- Acting as staff pharmacist when deemed necessary by the Director of Pharmacy
- Other duties as assigned by the Director of Pharmacy
- Assists the Program Director for the PGY2 Oncology Pharmacy Residency Program
- Supports the other exam practice pharmacists and clinical specialists in the development and maintenance of the pharmacist's roles in various disease centers
- Contribute to the market presence of the business through whitepapers, blogging, abstracts/posters, speaking engagements
- Participate with various nursing and medical staff committees as necessary In conjunction with pharmacy director and operations manager, responsible for staff performance evaluations

Qualifications for pharmacy clinical

- Completion of PGY1 residency or approval from ASHP for exemption
- May require 50% travel nationwide
- 3-4 years pharmacy experience in a Hospital/Ambulatory care clinic and at

- One to two years experience as a Pharmacy Technician in a retail, mail order, hospital or specialty pharmacy setting
- Requires the ability to sit and be stationary for prolonged periods of time, normal or corrected vision, and manual dexterity sufficient to perform work on a computer