

Example of Pharmacy Clinical Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of pharmacy clinical. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for pharmacy clinical

- Provides strategic guidance and support where appropriate of quality programs mandated by contractual requirements including but not limited to HEDIS, STARs, Evaluat8, MTM, Opioid DUR programs, polypharmacy, controlled substance monitoring, high risk medication monitoring and DSNP yearly member medication review
- Coordinates closely with the Director of Pharmacy Market Development in order to offer the most cost effective and competitive clinical services across markets
- Oversees the direction and management of staff responsible for P&T activities for all formularies
- Oversees the drug prior authorization, appeals, medical policy and provider grievance
- Direct supervisory responsibility of clinical pharmacists and technical staff
- Strives to improve the quality of care through the adherence of evidence based guidelines/protocols, reduction of medication adverse drug events, and minimizing cost
- Directs development, implementation, and maintenance of clinical pharmacy services
- Facilitates the development and implementation of treatment guidelines, protocols, formulary changes, and critical pathways as approved by appropriate committees
- Supports the pharmacy's pharmacoeconomic efforts
- Provides clinical consultation and clarification to practitioners

-
- Graduate from an accredited School of Pharmacy required
 - Current Georgia Pharmacist license required
 - Argus experience desired
 - Currently licensed to practice pharmacy in the State of Texas
 - Graduate of the ACPE accredited School of Pharmacy with a BS Pharmacy Degree or higher
 - BS with ASHP accredited residency and two years experience or PharmD or MS (Clinical/Hospital Pharmacy)