

Example of Pharmacy Resident Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of pharmacy resident. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for pharmacy resident

- Present assigned topics as part of education for department and/or other department staff
- Act as a preceptor to pharmacy students completing Advanced Pharmacy Practice Experience (APPE)
- Participate in opportunities to improve the quality, effectiveness, and/or efficiency in distributing medications to our patients
- Must be a citizen of the U.S. A., or hold a visa allowing for the completion of the residency year
- Must be licensed as a registered pharmacist in the state of Florida
- Preference for hospital pharmacy experience, clinical research experience
- Investigate/research/report adverse drug events
- Participate in the Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee process, evaluate requests for new drug usage and old formulary drug relevance, and review therapeutic classes for relevance, assist in updating hospital formulary
- Serve as an informational and patient problem solving resource for clinical staff pharmacists
- Completing a pharmacy practice research project and present at the Great Lakes Pharmacy Residency Showcase

Qualifications for pharmacy resident

- Seeking a professional candidate with good communication skills

- Must be an effective communicator (both written and verbal communication)
- Must be proficient in applicable pharmacy and non-pharmacy computer programs
- Resident will be directly supervised by a Pharmacy Preceptor and the Residency Program Director
- The Resident will be expected to increase independent performance of job duties as the Program progresses and will be expected to practice in accordance with established departmental and hospital policies and procedures at all times