Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of PHP web developer. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for PHP web developer

- Consulting with clients and other developers to define the right solution
- Responsible for academic and administrative web applications, related commercial applications or related processes
- Participate in planning, development of specifications, project plans, and other supporting documentation and processes
- Aid in planning future infrastructure requirements
- Conduct a capability gap assessment of existing information sharing and collaboration tools and establish a prioritized list of requirements
- Work closely with customers and stakeholders to elicit and validate user requirements to develop custom workflows and web pages
- Review/set up access control structures based on identified user categories and assist in the development of user access request procedures
- Create and manage document and records management architecture and content databases
- Assist in the development data management policy/processes for products developed
- Produce (and modify as-needed) server-side custom code to meet customer requirements

Qualifications for PHP web developer

- Database Optimisation

- Prior experience using issue tracking systems, e.g ServiceNow, Remedy
- Experience using/configuring Apache modules (rewrite rules, virtual hosts)
- A few years of professional experience in PHP(or other web development language) and relational databases