

Example of Physician Advisor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of physician advisor. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for physician advisor

- Using software development life cycle methodology, adhere to best practices in clinical authoring and IT
- Request and analyze reports to monitor performance of algorithms and identify opportunities for enhancements
- Create reports and presentations for key stakeholders
- Engage in mapping of ICD-10 and CPT codes
- In partnership with Reporting and Analytics, use data for predictive analysis and help guide business decisions
- Work with advanced graphic tools, including dashboards and other visual displays, to
- Provide reports that highlight variations in utilization, clinical practice, and clinical outcomes
- Support research activities through basic reporting functions and analysis
- The Case Management Medical Advisor serves as a resource to the Case Management staff on medical necessity, level of care, care progression, denial management, and resource utilization liaison to the Medical Staff for Case Management operations
- Conducts clinical review on cases referred by Case Management staff and/or other health care professionals in accordance with the hospital's established Utilization Management Plan

Qualifications for physician advisor

- Minimum 3 years of physician case reviewer experience preferred

- Meets the hospital's objectives for assuring quality patient care and effective, efficient utilization of health care services while also meeting regulatory requirements
- Meets with Case Management and health care team members to discuss selected cases and make recommendations related to care progression
- Interacts with medical staff members and medical directors of third party payers to discuss the needs of patients, access to care and alternative levels of care