

Example of Physician Advisor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of physician advisor. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for physician advisor

- Provides support and education to internal clinical and non-clinical staff regarding the principles associated with appropriate musculoskeletal diagnoses, treatments, and management
- Participates in physician team meetings
- Participates in groups that develop, revise and enhance clinical appropriateness guidelines
- Assists and manages the denial management process
- Provide feedback and education to the Care Management and Clinical Documentation Departments through written and verbal communication appropriate tracking and trending for process improvement efforts
- Proactively interacts with facility PA's and medical staff by seeking additional clinical information and documentation from physicians, discussing the patient's medically appropriate needs, suggesting alternative treatment plans and options and recommending appropriate next steps
- Reviews and analyzes outcomes and participates in the development of action plans related to utilization and other Case Management activities
- Reinforces evidenced-based medicine best practices and adherence to reduction in clinical variation
- Performs and educates/supports facilities in medical record audits and governmental reviews
- Participates in interdisciplinary rounds and supports care team communication and coordination activities within WFD

-
- Understanding of databases and basic querying
 - Perform physician-level case review, following initial nurse review, of high-tech diagnostic imaging, modalities
 - Demonstrated knowledge of current practice standards in interventional pain management
 - Managed care/administrative experience in a network environment
 - Proficiency in Microsoft Office applications, email, Internet, electronic documentation skills
 - Licensed physician with minimum of 5 years clinical practice experience