

Example of Piping Superintendent Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a piping superintendent. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for piping superintendent

- Approve subcontractor workforce requirements and review work accomplished by each craft
- Review subcontractor craft time records using established automated tools
- Assist in performing construction testing of piping systems as required
- Perform employee reviews and identify training and development opportunities for subordinate piping personnel
- Strong knowledge of pipe fabrication and installation, pneumatic and hydrostatic pressure testing, and mechanical completion
- Ability to lead and organize multiple piping crews
- Plan and schedule all piping work and ensure coordination with other crafts
- Being a safety role model for the team
- Anticipate and recognize potential safety and environmental concerns and report them to the OPD Superintendent
- Providing records of work completed to the OPD superintendent

Qualifications for piping superintendent

- Must have knowledge and understanding of the piping phase of construction operations at the jobsite
- Must have experience with construction in the areas of underground and above ground pipe, pipe supports, piping system cleanliness, pressure testing of pipe, and ASME B31.3 and Boiler Code piping
- Must be computer literate in word processing, spreadsheet, and database applications in accordance with current BSAP standards

- Monitors area for unsafe conditions, behaviors and practices and take appropriate corrective action to mitigate and eliminate
- Ensure that project processes and local/national safety codes, requirements and standards are being complied with within assigned area of responsibility