

Example of Power Supply Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of power supply. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for power supply

- Develop flexibility and fulfilment models for served customers
- Drive continuous flexibility improvement of all related Supply Chain processes in close cooperation with related functions
- Work on continuous improvement with functions such as Production, Customer Service, Procurement and Category Management, Global Services
- Manage the NA Medium Power S&OP process
- Lead Production Planning and Tactical Purchasing, ensuring customer requirements are met
- Monitor and manage the information and material flow from supplier to customer
- Lead planning of inventory levels of components and finished goods
- Establish regional KPI targets and reporting for the Supply Chain functions, and ensure targets are met
- Perform regular performance analytics, pareto, and review meetings
- Initiate and participate in projects and initiatives to leverage Supply Chain excellence supporting the Business Unit goals

Qualifications for power supply

- Previous experience of managing an electrical design team for rail & transit projects
- In depth knowledge of high voltage a.c
- Knowledge of Canadian and other suites of standards relating to railway

- Knowledge of switchgear, transformers, power conversion plant, electronic power conditioning (SVC, Statcomm), filters, and electrical protective relaying applications
- Knowledge of high & low voltage electrical distribution systems applications and practice, including load flow and protection analyses
- Knowledge of lightning protection and grounding, surge protection, EMI and EMC