

Example of Practice Consultant Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of practice consultant. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for practice consultant

- Practice plan information systems
- Physician compensation
- Physician productivity
- Practice cost management
- Manage the development of financial proformas and the due diligence for new practice acquisition targets
- Develop accurate information and data for informed decision making
- Quality and Service
- Clinical Innovation, Development and Research
- Strategic Planning and Expansion
- Understands terms of third-party contracts for the organization and participates as necessary regarding any needed changes

Qualifications for practice consultant

- At least 5 years of experience in customer-facing positions as a professional services consultant or engineer, preferably with an Internet or "Big 5" consulting organization
- At least several years of experience in infrastructure architecture and design of complex distributed systems environments, including failover techniques, recovery/rollback, and application partitioning
- Strong application software development for of the Linux, Unix
- Ability to travel between 75-80 percent of the time, including international,

- Series 7 & 63 licenses are required