Our growing company is hiring for a practice consultant. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for practice consultant

- Support and manage account planning with the virtual team members
- Provide customers and TR senior leadership with an enterprise view of customers and solutions that resonate with customers, across all BUs
- Provide insight, analysis and support to the GBD in commercial, strategic partnership conversations with key accounts in the form of proposal support for new opportunities, analysis and planning for renewals, strategy and thought leadership sessions
- Research and profile customer organizational structures and areas of focus for C-suite engagement for the GBDs and virtual team members
- Serve as core knowledge resource
- Execute on a broad range of data and analytic techniques at the direction of FTI and client
- Interpret collected information to be used by economists and case supervisors in the preparation of their expert reports and analyses
- Collaborate to provide deep business analytics and integrate findings into product deliverables
- Formulate and utilize basic data modeling as requested by supervisors
- Effectively document research and analyses to facilitate communication of progress

Qualifications for practice consultant

- Bachelor's degree in Accounting, Business or Health Care Administration preferred
- 5-10 years of health care industry financial, budgeting and/or medical practice management experience
- 8+ years overall experience of which 6+ years experience must be in corporate strategy, commercial/business planning, market analysis, operations or related discipline
- A minimum of five years physician practice management
- Experience with physician measurement systems in the areas of quality, cost and patient access