Our growing company is looking for a process technologist. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for process technologist

- Perform software system build (installs all system software) on servers and clients
- Assists process automation leader to resolve process automation issues
- Provides knowledgeable process automation advice to plant personnel and others within site
- Provide timely response and effective resolution to (problem or project) requests either by solving and/or escalating to the Engineering Solutions Tech Center or the vendor support line
- Develop working knowledge of the process control hardware
- Develop skills to navigate within the plant written applications to troubleshoot process control hardware problems
- Requires an on-going or frequent presence, rapid response, and a need to have hands-on interaction with the local environment in order to provide the needed services
- Expected to understand & follow all identified Engineering Solutions work processes
- Under the direction of a Global Process Control subject matter expert, incumbent will initiate portions of software upgrades that cannot be done remotely
- Preferred work schedules are 9-80/Alternating Friday Off or 5-8s

Qualifications for process technologist

- Bachelor's degree in Engineering or Science or equivalent technical field

- Experience in Process Technology – Design and Operation
- Passion for Food and Ingredients
- Degree in Engineering, Food Technology or equivalent apprenticeship and experience
- Proven experience of delivering innovations to the market