

Example of Procurement Buyer Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of procurement buyer. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for procurement buyer

- Generate and analyze reports relating to procurement
- Seek improvement opportunities for procurement process and initiate changes, including writing workflows and work procedures
- Shipment Receipt Acknowledgement into ERP System
- Support Overall Suppliers Evaluation in Terms of Overall Procurement Performance
- Perform daily procurement like activities as assigned by management or customer tasking systems
- Ensure all procurement files are in compliance with CPSR, FAR, DFAR, Government and Agency-specific regulations, and/or company policies and procedures
- Responsibilities of any procurement specialist are record keeping
- Tracks, analyzes, maintains, and monitors data in relation to supplier information and other data that assists in improving supplier performance
- Execute and expedite daily operative buying processes including catalog maintenance and management for standard products/services perform purchase checks for non-standard products/services
- Processes and completes simple to complex purchase requests

Qualifications for procurement buyer

- Business or equivalent degree (BA, BBS) - Masters preferred
- Strong influencing, team-building skills, with an ability to build consensus and

- Category specific experience (Professional Services, Training, External Resources), strategic sourcing and proven ability to work in a logical and thorough way with ability to pay attention to details
- A track record of developing category plan related to local and indirect categories that are country specific and the associated achievement of cost savings
- Ability to demonstrate innovative solutions to complicated purchasing initiatives, in a fast moving and demanding environment
- Should be perceived as a hard and fair negotiator, who manages and develops suppliers to meet customer requirements