

Example of Product Manager, VP Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of product manager, VP. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for product manager, VP

- Drive Big Data & Analytics product roadmap with focus on ensuring Chase stays on the leading edge of consumer business and technology landscape
- Provide tactical support and product delivery to all stakeholders/support staff
- Liaise with partners across the firm, serving as subject matter expert, identifying and implementing opportunities for efficiencies, process improvement and partnership enhancement
- Coordination and delivery of executive level reporting
- Perform ad-hoc analysis and reporting, resolving complex requests/issues
- Proactively review implementations post go-live to ensure original benefit case is met
- Produces an effective budget proposal with succinct, tangible benefits for stakeholders to approve
- Proactively identifies and suggests areas of potential synergy, whether across programs or even lines of business
- Keeps all interested parties well informed of project releases, risks, and their benefits
- Consistent Policies and Procedures across the four regions

Qualifications for product manager, VP

- Previous experience with treasury and liquidity products strongly preferred
- Creative problem solver, capable of developing innovative and differentiated solutions that has an entrepreneurial drive to execute

- Strong strategic thinker, execution oriented, with solid analytical experience
- 7+ years of treasury management banking experience - commercial payments experience a plus
- Responsibility for growing and servicing the Global Equity team business primarily in EMEA across all client types, but a particular emphasis on retail and wholesale clients in the UK