Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a product supply. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for product supply

- Thorough review of volume reconciliations, valuation methodology and journal entries associated with manufactured and purchased products
- Represent Global Supply Chain on product focused Global Operations Team (GO-Team) and Regulatory & Supply Team (RST)
- Support the supply chain systems product owners in driving system enhancements and process improvement initiatives -- this role will focus on areas related to demand planning, order routing, and inventory management, but will also provide support in other areas as needed
- Serve as the primary owner and support person for the JustEnough demand planning & forecasting application used by various supply chain operations groups
- Gather, consolidate, and document business requirements for supply chain systems projects
- Document current and future state business process flows including SOPs for supply chain systems projects and initiatives
- Provide analysis for new project requests or change requests
- Develop and manage systems process design flows for supply chain systems projects
- Specify and recommend configuration changes for supply chain systems enhancements and process improvements, and assist in gathering modification requests
- Develop and modify critical reports utilizing the supply chain systems, and work with business users to develop, analyze, and measure KPIs

- Possess Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical / Material / Physics / Electronics / Electrical / equivalent Engineering qualifications
- The candidate should ideally hold an undergraduate degree in science, engineering or logistics
- Any Engineer
- Graduation Date from December 2017 to December 2018
- Cost of manufacturing - supply chain
- Understanding of the way in which IT teams need to interact with business teams in order to make both successful