

Example of Production Equipment Operator Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a production equipment operator. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for production equipment operator

- Completes daily powered industrial truck (PIT) maintenance/check sheet
- Accurately inventories materials and records weight, counts, and condition of parts via an RF system
- Operation of a stand up style lift, sit down style lift, or tugging equipment in a manufacturing environment
- Positions forks, lifting platform, or other lifting device under, over, or around loaded pallets, skids, boxes, or materials, and transports load to designated area
- Puts away palletized or repacked units by raising forks for placement into four or five high racks
- Picks palletized or repacked units out of four or five high rack locations and stages for delivery
- Loads or unloads material onto or off of pallets, skids, or lifting device
- Recharges, maintains proper water levels, and clean batteries
- Assist other departments with problem solving or improvement ideas related to material movements
- Develop and maintain relationships in a team environment

Qualifications for production equipment operator

- Identify all in-process commodities and verify that they are consistent with the work order and perform line clearances
- Incumbent performs these and other duties including special assignments as

- Basic mechanical knowledge and the use of hand tools are strongly preferred
- Stand up to 8-12 hours per shift, sit for up to 2-4 hours per shift, twist at waist 10 times per hour, regularly lift up to 20 pounds per activity 5 times per shift, occasionally lift a maximum of 50 pounds per activity 1 time per shift, walk, climb stairs, climb ladders/walk on catwalks
- Use computer terminal 1 hour per shift, respond to visual warning indicators, respond to audible warning indicators, respond to color or special visual indicators, work around moving equipment, work with chemicals, work in hearing conservation area, work on knees occasionally