

Example of Production Equipment Operator Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is hiring for a production equipment operator. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for production equipment operator

- Rewind correct number of labels or footage per roll
- Visually inspect product and identify and remove defective material
- Package inspected labels for shipment
- Enter and maintain accurate production statistics to ensure accurate organizational metrics
- Assure quality of product produced by supporting all quality systems required by the organization
- Maintain equipment performance by performing regular preventative maintenance on equipment as required by maintenance programs
- Manage daily production to meet department schedules and productivity goals
- Comply with all safety and environmental policies and procedures
- Quality checking orders to ensure all pieces are accounted for
- Placing large quantities of orders into boxes per customer specifications

Qualifications for production equipment operator

- Printing industry knowledge a plus
- Experience in production related environment preferred
- 2 to 3+ years manufacturing/packaging experience
- Able to read and follow strict SOPs and regulations

