Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of professional quality. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for professional quality

- Funds Management reconciliation of customer invoices
- Participate in departmental projects/various testing
- Document business processes, update training procedures and standard operating procedures
- Provide recommendations for process efficiencies
- Create various BAT files
- Trouble shoot existing queries/macros
- Utilize Ultra Edit to create Bill Request Tax Amount, and Payment files to match required layouts
- Act as subject matter expert for all team roles
- Ensures the product is in compliance with company and customer standards through regular Quality Control product reviews
- Ensures the customer experience is in compliance with company and customer standards through regular Quality Control call monitors

Qualifications for professional quality

- Someone with strong technical knowledge and expertise in statistical analysis is must (capable of using SAS) Orchestrate (be able to work with large volume datasets created as part of the batch process in Linux, Orchestrate is also known as IBM Datastage but used in the old-school style, not the GUI version
- Collaborate with process and data model to create QA lifecycle
- Design QA software delivery intake process with cycle time offsets and

- Review Testing Tools and provide recommendation
- Research and suggest improved methods & metrics for test effectiveness and to achieve higher product quality
- Maintain a big picture view of client Application ecosystem, dependencies, organizational goals, technologies in order to help testing organization with test planning and test coverage