

Example of Program Instructor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking to fill the role of program instructor. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for program instructor

- Serve as academic advisor to students in AMT/IMT
- Maintain budget for AMT program
- Simulate medical problems
- Act as a patient for medical interviews and physical examinations
- Complete checklists on- examiner's history taking and physical diagnosis skills
- Provide corrective feedback to medical students and residents on their medical interviewing skills and physical examination techniques
- Demonstrate Standardized Patient skills at workshops for faculty
- Travel to various medical schools and residency programs to demonstrate, teach and evaluate their students and staff
- Assist in training of new Standardized Patient Instructors
- Standardized Patient Director evaluates job performance to maintain consistency in performance and reliability in scoring

Qualifications for program instructor

- Nationally Recognized Tai Chi Certification Preferred
- To have strong interpersonal skills and ability to communicate articulately with all levels of the Program
- Complete scheduled training and to acquire competency in the assigned material to the satisfaction of the Standardized Patient Coordinator
- Exhibit appropriate personal appearance, manner and hygiene when acting

- To observe the criterion of confidentiality and conduct oneself in a professional manner
- Preferred candidates will hold an MFA in Theatre and pertinent professional/educational experience in Acting, Voice, and Directing