Our growing company is looking for a project delivery. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for project delivery

- Communicating release metrics in various reports
- Working and communicating with cross-team leads to gather their requirements and add to the ALM tool
- Working with cross-team managers in translating their business needs into technical logic to create reports
- Addressing ad hoc requests based on the project need such as facilitating meetings
- Assisting with analysis on Quality metrics such as defect failure and testing pass rates
- You will bring support for the monitoring of financial performance
- You will undertake monthly regional closing (revenue recognition accuracy, margin control, Opex Bonus accrual …) and project delivery dates
- You will ensure monthly operational forecast and financial forecast
- You will manage monthly closing for all Coesys delivery activity
- You will be in charge of financial Reporting & Analysis on Service activity (P&L, WIP, Revenue recognition, operational rates...)

Qualifications for project delivery

- Knowledge of application development and system architecture
- Proven track record of leading, managing & delivering successful enterprise level multinational eCommerce projects
- Minimum 5 years' experience of Finance, Customer Service, Procurement or BPO type transitions

- Experience with underground medium voltage distribution systems is preferred
- Licensed Engineer Preferred