

Example of Project Engineer Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a project engineer. Thank you in advance for taking a look at the list of responsibilities and qualifications. We look forward to reviewing your resume.

Responsibilities for project engineer

- Coordinate with Development team and external consultants to deliver energy resource predictions and production simulations, shading studies, electrical schematics, plant and equipment layouts, system cost estimates, EPC contracts, technical exhibits, ect
- Review, manage, and maintain contractor deliverables during construction to hit critical contractual contract and financing milestones
- Support construction as a technical escalation point and owner's representative to mitigate delays and maintain schedule and scope creep
- Initiate purchase requisitions for equipment, labor, and materials for assigned capital and repair projects
- Track and report material qualification activities for the Bowling Green site
- Proactively identify ways to rationalize cost
- Work closely raw material suppliers to generate new ideas for material cost reductions
- Work closely with internal personnel to ensure efficient and effective cost save idea generation, development and execution
- Work actively with NA R&D and TPM to ensure that Cost Saving activities are implemented while securing product quality and function
- Communicate effectively through all levels of the organization on the status of the various material qualification activities

Qualifications for project engineer

- Analyze and prepare appropriation requests
- Highly proficient CAD skills
- Bachelor's degree in Science, Engineering or Math discipline from an accredited university
- Minimum 5 years of experience in project management with focus on avionics or cyber security
- Minimum 2 years of experience in cyber security requirements development, cyber threat analysis, cyber systems engineering, cyber systems architecture development or cyber security policy development experience