

Example of Project Engineering Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is hiring for a project engineering. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for project engineering

- Identify and deliver key work streams during the mobilisation phase of projects which will assist the maintenance of the fleet throughout the lifecycle of the fleet
- Liaise with bid teams where required to provide input and understand maintenance implications from the tendering process
- Act as a HRE point of contact with the customer to discuss any proposed changes to the train
- Perform duties as directed by relevant management from time to time
- Knows the technical requirements of the project
- Defining the value derived from Governance and Controls of the processes and functions in scope
- Ensuring that process and controls are fit-for-purpose and there is optimal fit between process and technology, mapping organisation process automation dependencies, workflows, and tools
- Integrating the process policy into Home Office Authority and ESN supplier 3rd party to identifying integration issues and also trigger improvement initiatives
- Responsibility for maturing processes on the Continual Service Improvement Plan
- Review process documentation and rework material weaknesses for processes using Business Process Modelling notation standards from levels 0 – 4 within Microsoft Visio and also Home Office documentation sets through

Qualifications for project engineering

- 5+ years engineering experience in product development or product maintenance of line
- 3+ years of experience as a technical project manager or project lead for an industrial product
- Demonstrated skills with project management tools and methodologies, product development lifecycle, and problem solving
- Lead technical design reviews and propose design solutions for material handling and storage solutions that meet both business needs and leverage global design standardization
- Lead a project team including 1-2e junior Project Engineers and several Contractors
- Create, submit and track the relevant Capex documentation to ensure that all projects are delivered on time, within budget and best overall value