

Example of Property Underwriter Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a property underwriter. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for property underwriter

- Maintain relationships with clients and brokers
- Contribute to the claims settlements in conjunction with the claims department
- Responsible for the San Francisco territory
- Contribute to the strategic development of our Multinational portfolio
- Support the Commercial Property management team to manage the impact of regulatory change both internal and external (including audit & PRA regulation)
- Support the culture of continuous improvement in all areas including improving processes to make the business more efficient and creating an environment where people are encouraged to take initiative and responsibility
- Support the business to build a high performance culture by coaching on technical topics and referrals, supporting managers to develop their teams and build skills and knowledge to realise current and future business objectives
- Demonstrated track record of leadership of special projects, broker initiatives, product or service development, portfolio management and development of business and proactive pipelining
- Contribute to development of Line of Business (LOB) expert group and Property Portfolio strategy as requested
- Contribute to the development of the Property Cat Strategy

Qualifications for property underwriter

- Contribute to project work and special assignments
- Communicate and coordinate with global underwriting teams
- Represent Corporate Solutions in meetings with clients, brokers and at industry events and conferences
- Support local origination efforts across the lines while interfacing with clients/brokers
- Analyze and assess property submissions in respect of exposures and coverages