

Example of Psychiatric Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is looking for a psychiatric. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for psychiatric

- Provides ongoing psychotherapy and evaluation of psychiatric symptoms and behavioral disorders as ongoing treatment, through both individual and group psychotherapy
- Facilitates triage and care of acute cases and emergencies, referral of clients to other health care providers or inpatient service as indicated
- Documents all encounters with clients and maintains records in accordance with Department standards
- Attends team meetings to communicate with other professionals and with referral sources
- Interfaces with other professionals when clinically appropriate for patient care
- Seeks and provides clinical supervision when appropriate
- Attends meetings for collaboration with multidisciplinary team members
- Participates in Departmental and University meetings for continuing staff education
- Maintains current knowledge of mental health illness issues related to HIV/AIDS and substance abuse
- Provides feedback to supervisor on ongoing basis in regards to concerns, improvements, changes

Qualifications for psychiatric

- Provides a comprehensive assessment of patient's psychosocial needs,

- Provides effective treatment to patients, whether assessment or therapy, and shares and interprets information to staff, families, and/or other approved agencies
- Completes written reports in a timely fashion as required
- Provides individual and psychotherapeutic services in accordance with current standards of practice, as developed by professional and licensing organizations, and defined and interpreted by supervisor
- Provides case management services for comprehensive evaluations
- Complies with unit practice standards relating to case management including addressing family and community resources, eligibility for entitlement programs, and other health care providers