

Example of Psychologist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of psychologist. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for psychologist

- Provide comprehensive outpatient mental health services and programs to a diverse student population
- Provide intake evaluations, individual brief therapy, couples and group therapy, and psycho-educational groups
- Participate in center meetings and development activities
- Provide evaluations, diagnostic assessment and evidenced based therapy for individuals
- Obtain training in evidenced based therapies for working with veterans
- Completes statistical data required of clinical services delivery as requested by Supervisor
- Functions as resource for other interdisciplinary team members on the outpatient service
- Ensures accuracy in documentation and billing for psychological services rendered on the service
- In collaboration with the Supervisor, assists in planning, developing and implementing educational programs to advance clinical expertise of staff and trainees
- Assists with implementation of new initiative within the service as directed by the Supervisor and evaluation of the ongoing efficacy of these program initiatives

Qualifications for psychologist

- Graduate of an accredited advanced degree program required

- Three (3) years of direct work experience preferred
- Ph.D or Psy.D in Psychology from an accredited university
- Previous experience working with children, adolescents and adults highly preferred
- Demonstrated social services knowledge