Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a quality data analyst. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for quality data analyst

- Prepare combined data presentations comprised of Customer Allegiance, Installation Excellence, and Hot Account data on a regular schedule to support functional quality reviews
- Standardize and automate reporting through an SAP interface (currently Business Objects) for key product quality and business metrics
- Support the creation of dashboards by Product or business process
- Support use of statistical techniques such as DOE, SPC, Gage R&R, and capability studies to improve designs, analyze problems and monitor processes
- Maintain the Quality of the customer data in MDM
- Identify and investigate customer data issues at a basic to intermediate level
- Assist Data Stewards to investigate customer data issues
- Performing the basic BAU operational tasks on a daily basis
- The candidate will be running with data quality process for the team
- Responsible for limited amount of software

Qualifications for quality data analyst

- Profile data against standard data quality checks in source/target systems on a regular basis to identify significant/systemic trends requiring attention
- Collaborate with IT partners to educate about of the scope of data governance, the value of data quality, and available resources for implementing solutions in accordance with data quality standards

- Passion for the Data Governance and Quality tools, processes and practice
- 5+ years' experience in the Data Governance or Data Quality domain
- Database (relational & NoSQL), warehouse, data integration knowledge