

Example of Quality Specialist Senior Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of quality specialist senior. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for quality specialist senior

- Develop and deliver quality systems training
- Use prior experiences to help problem solve, search and apply solutions
- Develop internal quality self-assessment program and internal auditors
- Manage Quality Incident reporting and CAPA system to prioritize and ensure follow up on corrective and preventive action plans
- Complete work according to established priorities to assure deliverables meet requirements
- Develop and implement plant quality systems, provide coaching and guidance to Operations and R&D on system requirements and strategies to manage compliance
- Proficiency in using software systems such as
- Experience in writing and revising procedural documents, troubleshooting and root cause investigation
- File and archive documents owned by QA, and provide timely documentation & training support during the preparation for and execution of external audits
- Escalation of complaints and assist in complaint investigations as required

Qualifications for quality specialist senior

- Bachelor's degree in Biology, Chemistry, Microbiology, or related field and at least three years of technical experience working in the laboratory, or an Associate's degree with commensurate experience

- Review the functional test cases written by the test engineers to make sure there is adequate test coverage
- Broad knowledge and experience performing assays used to assess the quality of biopharmaceuticals, including HPLC, SDS-PAGE, CE
- Proven ability to establish collaborative working relationships
- Maintain productive relationship and open communication with QC, Supply Operations, Regulatory, Manufacturing, Product Development, Research and Development, Project Teams, and Clinical Research/Operations